Career options in Nursing
Prof.Dr.S.Ani Grace Kalaimathi M.Sc(N), PhD., Registrar, Tamil Nadu Nurses and

Midwives Council

A career in nursing means no two days are ever the same. They're exciting, stimulating and diverse offering a variety of environments and areas in which to specialise. Better still, each day that passes presents the opportunity to develop new skills, take on further responsibilities and build your career, whether it's here or overseas. Nursing is a dynamic and varied career choice. As well as being a respected profession for both men and women, with numerous rewards and opportunities, every day is exciting and unpredictable. While every nursing career is different to another, the one thing that all nurses have in common is that their work is never dull. Working in the health care environment is more than a job - it's a career. A career where you can make a difference, all day, every day. There are so many options available once you have decided on a career in nursing.

Job Outlook

The future looks bright in the nursing field. The outlook for new Registered Nurses is exceptionally good; the number of new jobs for registered nurses is expected to increase at a rate far greater than that of most other jobs in coming years. Healthcare in India is estimated to have a 40-50 percent shortage of nurses. An important profession within medicine, nursing supports patients with critical illnesses, chronic diseases and psychiatric illnesses in public and private settings. Within a hospital or non-hospital setting, nurses are crucial to the healthcare industry.

White Heart Symbol of Nursing

Back

THE WHITE HEART SYMBOL OF NURSING

Wear or offer a white heart to colleagues and friends! You will remind the world around you of the value and proud tradition of nursing.

The white heart was officially launched as a universal symbol for nursing in 1999, on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the International Council of Nurses. The symbol is meant to characterize the caring, knowledge and humanity that infuse the work and spirit of nursing. The white heart is also a unifying symbol for nurses globally.

White was selected because it brings together all colours, demonstrating nursing's acceptance of all people. White also has a world-wide association with nursing, caring, hygiene and comfort. The heart shape communicates humanity and the central place that nursing has in quality health care.

Wear or give a white heart pin.

You will remind the world around you of the value and proud tradition of nursing.

History

HISTORY OF TAMIL NADU NURSES AND MIDWIVES COUNCIL FROM INCEPTION (1928)

A vital legislation for control of Nurses, Midwives and Dhais who were carrying on unlicensed practice of their profession in the Presidency of Madras was introduced in the Madras Legislative Assembly in 1926 and passed as Act III of 1926. It may reasonably be thought that this legislation could have been passed 14 years earlier when the Medical Registration Act of 1914 was passed. However, it is the first of its kind in India and Madras can take pride in the fact that it is the premier. Presidency of India to get the enviable honour of having a Statutory Council entrusted with the task of opening the First Register's of Nurses and Midwives and admitting thereto trained and untrained persons practicing their profession as Nurses and/or as Midwives in the Madras Presidency.

The term Presidency then connected the composite Madras State which included the present States of Tamil Nadu, Andhrapradesh and Kerala (excluding the Indian State of Travancore and Cochin) As provided in Sub-section (1) of Section 1 of the Act, A Council called the Madras Nurses and Midwives Council was then formed. The Assent of the British Government, a vital legislation for regulating the Nursing training and practice was passed by the Legislature was made on 7th May 1926 and signed by the Governor General on the 9th June 1926. The same was published in Fort St. George Gazette on the 29th June 1926. The Madras Nurses and Midwives Act III of 1926 came into force on the 14th day of February 1928. It is called the Madras Nurses and Midwives Act III of 1926. It was amended as per Nurses and Midwives Act VII of 1934 and Act XXVI(26) of 1960. This Council is an autonomous statutory registration body for registering qualified Nurses, Midwives, Auxiliary-Nurse-Midwives /Multipurpose Health Workers / Health Visitors as per the provisions of the Act. It extends its registration to Union Territories ie: Pondicherry and Andaman & Nicobar Islands. The syllabus for the training of nurses was revised in 1927 by adopting the syllabus prescribed by the General Nursing Council for England and Wales, London in a modified form. This council is the earliest piece of legislation on Nursing in the whole of South-East Asia. The first meeting of the Council was held on 11th April, 1928 under the presidentship of Maj.Gen.F.H.G. Hutchinson, I.M.S., the Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras. The second meeting of the Council held on 20-03-1929 gave recognition to nine hospitals as training institutions for nurses, four hospitals for midwives and 35 hospitals for dhais. The first Register of Nurses, Midwives and Dhais was compiled and printed and published in 1930. A Registrar was also appointed to carry out the functions of the Council and to implement its decisions.

Act

The Tamil Nadu Nurses And Midwives Act

There are six levels of nursing education in India today. They are :

Multy Purpose Health Worker Female training (ANM or MPHWF)

Female Health Supervisor training (HV or MPHS-F)

General Nursing and Midwifery (GNM)

B.Sc. Nursing

M.Sc. Nursing

M.Phil and PhD

The ANM, HV, and GNM are conducted in schools of nursing. The last 3 are university level courses and the respective universities conduct examinations. Beside there are several certificate and diploma courses in specialties. Nursing education has expanded considerably post independence. University education in nursing brought about changes in nursing education. The type of nurses required today is an "all round personality". Education brings changes in behaviour of the individual in a desirable manner. It aims at all round development of an individual to become mature, self-sufficient, intellectually, culturally refined, socially efficient and spiritually advanced.
